August 29, 1-49, 43 bright-eved kindergartners arrived at Remoeck Comin mity School ter their first day of school. Twenty six of the original members graduate (M y 22, 1 o). They are Mary Bern, Chiton Clurke, Dorzs Dedot, Judy Dirks, Dean toinger, David Hite, LeAnne Boeoner, Joan Horstman, Juve Jons, Beralt Jensen, Ganger Jan, Geraldine Karkosh, Marian Knack, Saraey Love , Gorden Mennen, , Din Paisen, Sara Roberts, Steve Roberts, Meinin y h Liroth, E ray Shriney, Dennis Springer, Din Staker, Brice Steprens, Beryl Thede, Kendall Walters, and Janet Wyatt.

We were the birst class to hold indergarten gradiation complete with crep-paper caps and gowns. Miss Prottengeiar was our teacher.

but stigrede was the year of the big footbald game between the farst and second grate boys. The Des Monn's Press covered the action. Jidy Geason joined our class. Mrs. Manning and Miss Holthuis were our teachers.

Many of sentered second grade and of the supervision of Mass Hep, er e, whom it, no of our pereits also had. Miss Bogem in tod charge of the other section. Victor Dev. K and Kenny Barters ranged us that year. Within the second and there grades some of as formed a squire dance group which performed on severaoccasions.

Than agra le was the year of the acks and checkers tournaments. Mrs. Roles and Mrs. Powers were very clear at thinking up noon entertainment. Baton tw rang was the rage. Our additions were Make Rickert, Drye Hopans, George and Mary Brubiker, Dean Ritanson, and Larry Liverenz. We left third grade with a little states and capitals safely tucked away in our memories. Fourthgrade, under Miss Eggleston and Mrs. Miekle introduced the bird club.

In fifth grade boys discovered giris. Gene Barker, Caro, Martens, and Janet Kratzer became part of our class. Mrs. Rothmyer and Miss Burns he ped as through the year. Almost everyone started taking instrument lessons.

We were the last sixth graders to be included in Jr. High, which at this time was th, 7th, and 8th grades. We remember such things as the Slop-Clash Day, benmanship class, basketball, our own newspaper, The Jr. Rams Prints, and an undefeated football team in eighth grade. John Wagstaff and Jerry Larsen joined us.

July Gleason was chosen F. F. A. Sweetheart our freshman year. Paul DauSchmidt entered our class.

The first Miletic Banquet was held our Sophomore year. Speech and Thes. plans started to interest us.

The prom was the highlight of our Jr. year Our theme was Some Enchant ed Frenic, , and we were very proud of our work. At State Music Contest our micest choras, girls chorus, and boys chorus all received first ratings. Donna kneeland, and Alen Hockameyer came to finish high school with us High, its closs senior year were the crowning of Dixle Hopkins as Home-Years", and the class trip to Chicago.

Finis

There were times we thought we wouldn't,
There were times we thought we couldn't.
Our minds are wracked,
Our backs are stooped,
The Smar is here,
And we are pooped!!
